

REPORTING VERBS

E Choose two verbs that have got similar meanings. Then match the verbs to suitable pictures below.

- admit / order / explain / demand
- explain / suggest / enquire / recommend
- complain / announce / tell / advise
- ask / admit / wonder / advise

F Complete the sentences with the reporting verbs below.

admitted / told / wanted to know / explained asked / announced / suggested

- At the interview, the manager asked me if I had studied at university.
- When her employer accused her of stealing, Mary admitted that she had taken some cheques.
- I suggested that we see the new French film.
- Dave announced that he was getting married in the summer.
- The waiter wanted to know if we were ready to order our meal.
- The coach told the football team he was proud of them.
- Mr Brown called his wife and explained that he had to stay late at the office.

PHRASAL VERBS WITH MULTIPLE MEANINGS

G Write the meaning of the bolded words in your own language.

- We paid back all the money that we had borrowed. devolvimos
- I'll pay for all the damages that I caused. pagaré
- All the studying finally paid off. I did really well in the exam. mereció la pena
- One day, I'll pay you back for all the terrible things you said about me. me vengaré de ti / me las pagará
- It took several years, but we finally paid off all the expenses. terminamos de pagar
- He has paid for his crime by spending many years in prison. ha sido castigado por

Make It Personal

H Answer the questions. Make them true for you. Answers will vary. Accept all logical and grammatically correct answers.

- What do you think is a daring job? Explain your reason.
.....
- What is the most difficult thing for you to manage?
.....
- What did you use to get away with when you were a child?
.....
- What do you usually complain about?
.....
- What has someone warned you NOT to do?
.....

Writing: A REVIEW

A Choose the correct connectors of sequence.

- At first we thought the film was boring but at last / in the end we really enjoyed it.
- In the beginning, my parents refused to let me get a dog but after / eventually they agreed.
- I did all the shopping and then / after prepared a special dinner.
- We were driving for over an hour until finally / later we found our hotel.
- By the time / A few hours later I finished studying, I was too tired to go out.

B Number the sentences to show the order the events happened. Pay attention to the connectors of sequence in italics.

- In the end*, the police found Jim and arrested him.
- Then*, one day, Jim heard on the radio that the police had arrested the dealer who was trying to sell a stolen painting.
- In January 2002, Jim Brice stole a valuable painting and took it to an art dealer to sell.
- Meanwhile*, months went by but Jim was still waiting.
- As soon as* he heard the news, Jim knew he was in trouble, and he looked for somewhere to hide.
- After that*, he waited for the dealer to call and say that he had sold the painting.

C Think of a book you have recently read. List the main events in the order they happened. Answers will vary. Accept all logical and grammatically correct answers.

Task: In your notebook, write a review about a book that you have recently read.

Use 80 – 120 words. Answers will vary. Accept all logical and grammatically correct answers.

TIP! Remember to:

- give the title of the book and the names of the main characters.
- describe the main events using your list from C and connectors of sequence.
- give a recommendation.
- check your work.

